Valerie Hodge Lane

Valerie has a Bachelor's of Science degree in Business Administration and a Master's of Science degree in Human Services. She is an accomplished and sought after Inspirational Speaker, Entrepreneur and Domestic Violence Advocate. Her goal is to "Get To The Root Of The Problem" and to inspire others to move pass their past and progress into a world of hope, triumph and accomplishment. She has spoken to thousands of people from all walks of life on topics that range from personal and professional growth to the development of healthy relationships and love.

Over the years Valerie has taken on a multitude of roles because of the challenges that have come into her life. And while she was conquering those obstacles she realized that she must share with the world the tools she was given.

She has lectured on the Collegiate level as well as conducting open forums for men, women and teenagers. She has facilitated individual and group counseling sessions, most notably her "Making Peace With Your Past" therapeutic support group. Valerie has served as a Vice-President of Mothers Against Drunk Driving. She was Co-Chair of the Lee County Domestic Violence Coalition of South Carolina and also served on the Board of the Lee County Center Teen Advisory Board. She has developed and implemented workshops for A Better Way: Project GO "Gang Out". She has also worked as a Victim's Advocate for SisterCare. Inc of South Carolina. Valerie has spoken in front of large audiences as the keynote speaker, such as the NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR VICTIM ASSISTANCE® (NOVA) national conference, the National Mean Girls Conference and Without Walls International Church. She has also presented to smaller audiences such as the South Carolina School Counselor Association and SC Women and Men Correctional Facilities.

Valerie is founder and owner of Positive Image Consulting Firm. She is married to Darryl A Lane and have a wonderful son, Deron Sample Jr.
